Durable Binoculars

By Dave Arnold on 29 November 2017

These binoculars are a good pair that assists with seeing far distances. I really like the grip feature that it has. It comes with a lanyard to put the binoculars around your neck and comes with a case and lense cleaner. I don't see much of a negative thing about these binoculars. When looking through the lenses, the view is crisp and they feel durable, so I'm not worried about dropping them. Overall a great purchase!

Size Really Doesn't Matter!

By Marty Belushi on 29 November 2017

Great compact binoculars! These work just as well as my full size binoculars at half the size. I'm picky about the feel of the materials on products I use and the rubberized plastic here feels great. They also have a nice weight to them. Heavy enough to not feel cheap but not at all heavy either. I plan to leave these in my car and take them when I go hiking. Very pleased!

Very nice

By Joe Sharman on 29 November 2017

Nice little binoculars. I got these for my best friends sons so they could go bird watching and I think they will be perfect.I tried them out from my back yard and could very easily see the grocery store sign from a mile away. They are very compact and feel well made. I can't wait for the boys to try them out.
